

City of Dunnellon

Driving Distance: 35 Miles

Where two special rivers – the Rainbow and Withlacoochee-plus Florida’s second largest artesian spring combine into a “wanderland”

A (19M) Marjorie Harris Carr Cross-Florida Greenway, Rainbow Springs Campground, Rainbow Springs State Park

Crossing the Withlacoochee River at the Citrus/Marion County line, continue on US 41 to the City of Dunnellon. To access the Marjorie Harris Carr Cross-Florida Greenway, turn east (R) on CR 484 (E. Pennsylvania Ave.) past countryside dotted by huge spreading oaks, to the Pruitt Trailhead (15410 SW CR 484).

- 110-mile corridor for equestrian, biking, and hiking use.
- From the Gulf of Mexico to the St. Johns River, this greenway occupies land formerly known as the Cross-Florida Barge Canal.

- Events transformed this corridor from one of Florida’s biggest public works projects to a world-class greenway.

Return west on CR 484 toward Dunnellon to SW 180th Ave. Turn north (R) through hilly pastureland. Rainbow Springs Campground is on the left.

- Canoe and tube rentals.
- 105 campsites, swimming pool, fishing pier, picnic tables, grills, playground, dock.

Continue north to intersection with US 40. Turn west (L) to intersection with US 41. Turn south (L) for 1/2 mile to Rainbow Springs State Park.

- Scenic gardens, waterfalls, nature trails, wildlife viewing.
- Swimming, snorkeling, picnic facilities, canoeing.

Return to CR 484 west (L), at US 41 turn south (L). Before bridge over the Withlacoochee, turn right into Centennial Park.

- Boat ramp, canoe access to river.
- Picnic tables, boardwalk, gazebo.

C (6M) Historic Dunnellon

To visit Historic Dunnellon, return north on US 41, turn west (L) at Pennsylvania Ave., and then north (R) at Cedar St. (CR 40).

- Restored nineteenth century homes and buildings.
- Antique stores, novelty shops, restaurants.

Continue west on Cedar (CR 40) to Levy County.

B (10M) K-P Hole County Park, Dunnellon City Beach, Centennial Park

Return south on US 41 to stoplight at SW 99th Pl., turn east (L), cross railroad tracks and north (L) onto SW 190th Ave. to K-P Hole County Park on the Rainbow River.

- Swimming, picnicking, playground.
- Canoe & tube rentals.

Return to US 41 south, turn south (L) at CR 484 (Pennsylvania Ave.) four blocks to Maple, turn south (R), follow signs to Dunnellon City Beach.

- Confluence of Rainbow and Withlacoochee Rivers.
- Swimming, picnic tables, grills, playground.

